

Western Forestry Center

Western Forestry Center - The World Forestry Center is a non-profit located in Portland, Oregon created to educate and inform people about the world's forests, trees and environmental sustainability through our museum, international fellowship program, conferences and events. Western Forestry & Conservation Association 4033 SW Canyon Road Portland, OR 97221 (ph) 503-226-4562 (fax) 503-226-2515. Workshop Services. Have an idea for a workshop but don't have the time? WFC can help with your workshop workload. We can take care of the details that make your event a success. The World Forestry Center is a nonprofit educational institution in Portland in the U.S. state of Oregon. Located near the Oregon Zoo in Washington Park, the organization was established in 1964 [citation needed] as the Western Forestry Center, with the actual building opening in 1971. Manhattan Real Estate and the Magical Urban Forest. While it's widely known that New York City is full of the unexpected, it may surprise most that it is one of the top ranking cities for urban forestry within the United States.